The image is a screenshot of a digital book interface. At the top, the title "A History of Pleasants County, West Virginia" is displayed in a large, dark font. Below the title, the author's name "By Robert L. Pemberton" is visible. A navigation bar includes a "Preview" button and a search icon. The left sidebar contains a section titled "About this edition" with metadata: ISBN: 9780800612000, Published: 2002, and Publisher: Genealogical Publishing Co. Below this is a "Create Citation" button. A paragraph of text describes the book's content, mentioning "Evidence of ancient mound-building has been considered primarily in the context of the Ohio River-known in New York as the Allegany River-claiming the land for the first time. The book is a Gist to explore the area. It is a history of the area. Tensions arose between the two groups, and border rivalries, and the river was an early highway." The main content area is mostly obscured by a large white rectangle. The bottom section, titled "Other editions", shows three book covers. The first cover is for "A History of Pleasants County, West Virginia" by Robert L. Pemberton. The other two covers are labeled "No image available".
